

The Safest Regulator for Children

Children require the very gentlest and safest bowel regulator you can give them. Violent purgatives are likely to do more harm than good. And moreover, they cause unnecessary suffering from griping and nausea.

Rexall Orderlies

are undoubtedly the best bowel-medicine for children ever discovered. They assist Nature to renew her functions so quietly and naturally that there is no unpleasantness whatever. They cure constipation without griping or nausea, and afford immediate and lasting relief.

Rexall Orderlies are pleasant tasting, vanilla flavored tablets, and children take them as eagerly as they would candy.

Large Box (36 tablets), 25c.
Small Box (12 tablets), 10c.

A Tribute of Affection.

Died—At the residence of her mother, in South Norwood, Ohio, on November 29th Mrs. Allen Sanders Troxell.

The death of this young lady is a particularly sad one. Just budding into lovely womanhood, with a devoted husband, a kind and indulgent mother, and idolized by her grandparents, life was yet before her with all its rosy hues of happiness. How sadly true the quotation: "There is a Reaper whose name is Death."

And with his sickle keen He reaps the bearded grain at a breath, And the flowers that grow between." Mrs. Troxell, who will be best remembered as Allen Sanders, was born and spent the days of her childhood in Paris. She is affectionately remembered by her schoolmates here for her sweet and gentle disposition. Her father, Edgar Sanders, preceded her to the grave several years, and then her little sister joined him. The loss of husband and daughter doubly endeared Allen to her mother, and almost her entire affection was lavished upon her. Several months ago she began to decline, and although the young husband and the mother did everything that could be done, it was seen that she was gradually but surely failing.

To such grief as theirs mere words seem idle and empty. It is hard for them to be comforted. It is difficult for them to understand that it may be for the best, and that now with her sister who has gone before she is far happier. Time alone will heal the suffering. Their only comfort will be the pleasure of looking forward to that glad reunion, when the pangs of parting will never be felt.

Mrs. Troxell was a grandchild of Mrs. Allie Sidener, and Mr. and Mrs. Alex Sanders, formerly of this city. She is survived by her mother, who was formerly Belle Sidener, of this city. Her father, Edgar Sanders, died several years since. She was united in marriage to Mr. Otis Troxell, a young business man, of Cincinnati about two years ago.

To the bereaved husband, mother and relatives the sympathy of a host of friends in Paris is extended. R.

BRUCE HOLLADAY.

A Beautiful Book.

Read the book and see the play "Quincy Adams Sawyer" has attained almost as great a popularity as "Ben Hur" or "Uncle Tom's Cabin." It is a beautiful story of New England home life, sympathetic, humorous and dramatic. The writer, Charles Felton Pidgin, Chief of the Bureau of Statistics of Massachusetts, was inspired to write the story by a perusal of James Russell Lowell's famous poem, "The Courtin'" and has dedicated his book to Mr. Lowell. A limited number of $1.50 copies, cloth bound, with sixteen full page beautiful illustrations are offered at 60 cents each at the Paris Book store.

Manager Borland has secured this play for the Paris Grand, Friday, January 10, and also made the arrangements with Messrs. Atkinson & Thatcher, proprietors of the play, by which these books might be purchased so cheaply.

Abolish the Game.

The Philadelphia North American says: "The institutions that are in trouble owe their troubles not to any accidents or accidents of legitimate banking, but to gambling. The disclosures of the last few days are not of new found evil practices. Wall Street assumes the virtuous pose of being shocked by the traction scandal and the use of a chain of banks as an adjunct of stock jobbing. These practices, known now by the public, have been known for years by Wall Street and by well-informed bankers throughout the country. The cover is off now, or at least partly lifted. But the malodorous mess that has long been stewing beneath is not of new mixing." Then why not a concerted movement by men of all parties toward the abolition of this great gambling game that traffics in the property of the people?

Making Good.

There is no way of making lasting friends like "Making Good;" and Doctor Pierce's medicines will exemplify this, and their friends, after more than two decades of popularity, are numbered by the hundreds of thousands. They have "made good" and they have not made drunkards.

A good, honest, square-deal medicine of known composition is Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It still enjoys an immense sale, while most of the preparations that have come into prominence in the earlier period of its popularity have "gone by the board" and are never more heard of. There must be some reason for this long-time popularity and that is to be found in its superior merits. When once given a fair trial for weak stomach, or for liver and blood affections, its superior curative qualities are soon manifest; hence it has survived and grown in popular favor, while scores of less meritorious articles have suddenly flashed into favor for a brief period and then been as soon forgotten.

For a torpid liver with its attendant indigestion, dyspepsia, headache, perhaps dizziness, foul breath, nasty coated tongue, with bitter taste, loss of appetite, with distress after eating, nervousness and debility, nothing is so good as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It's an honest, square-deal medicine with all its ingredients printed on bottle-wrapper—no secret, no hocus-pocus humbug, therefore don't accept a substitute that the dealer may possibly make a little bigger profit. Just on your right to have what you call for.

Don't buy Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription expecting it to prove a "cure-all." It is only advised for woman's special ailments. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Less advertised than some preparations sold for like purposes, its sterling curative virtues still maintain its position in the front ranks, where it has stood over two decades ago. As an invigorating tonic and strengthening medicine it is unequalled. It won't satisfy those who want "booze," for there is not a drop of alcohol in it.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets, the original Little Liver Pills, although the first pill of their kind in the market, still lead, and when once tried are ever afterwards in favor. Easy to take as candy—one to three a dose. Much imitated but never equaled.

Extreme Amounts.

The largest amount received by Secretary of State McChesney at Frankfort during his term of organization tax for articles of incorporation was $40,000, paid by the Southern Pacific Company, and the other extreme was reached Friday when he received a check for five cents as organization tax of the incorporation of the Bay's Fork Telephone Company, which was incorporated in Allen county, at $50.

Christmas Shopping.

Shop early. The woman who shops early is in better temper to make judicious selections, has more time to devote to making purchases, a less rumpled assortment of goods to choose from, and above all is apt to receive more effective and considerate service from the clerks. Women are prone to making early shopping resolutions and are also prone to breaking them. Really, the results might be worth the efforts of a good trial.

In addition to the utilitarian features of early shopping, there is the humanitarian feature. A New York woman has formulated the following rules for Christmas shopping.

First—Do as much as possible of your shopping before December 10th.
Second—Have it all done one week before Christmas.
Third—Shop early in the day.
Fourth—Carry home as many parcels as possible.
Fifth—Do not have parcels sent home on approval.

Wonderful Eczema Cure.

"Our little boy had eczema for five years," writes N. A. Adams, Henrietta, Pa. Two of our home doctors said the case was hopeless, his lungs being effected. We then employed other doctors, but no benefit resulted. By chance we read about Electric Bitters; bought a bottle and soon noticed improvement. We continued this medicine until several bottles were used, when our boy was completely cured." Best of all blood medicines and body building health tonics. Guaranteed at Oberdorfer's drug store. 50c. nov
